C.1 Reading Text

One day, when Mr. Smith came home from work, he found his wife every 2 annoyed about something. Mr. Smith always thought that he was more sensible than his wife, so he started to give her a lecture on the importance of always remaining calm.

Finally he said, "It's a waste of your strength to get excited about small things.
6 Train yourself to be patient, like me. Now, look at the fly that has just landed on my nose. Am I getting excited or annoyed? Am I swearing or waving my arms around ?
No, I'm not. I'm perfectly calm."

Just as he had said this, Mr. Smith started shouting. He jumped up and began 10 to wave his arms around wildly and swear terribly. He couldn't speak to some time, but at last he was able to tell his wife: the thing on his nose hadn't been a fly, it had
